

In the Supreme Court of Georgia

Decided: July 12, 2010

S10Y1067. IN THE MATTER OF DENISE F. HEMMANN.

PER CURIAM.

It appears that the Notice of Discipline in this matter, which was filed by the State Bar regarding alleged violations of the Rules of Professional Conduct by Denise F. Hemmann, contains conflicting recommendations as to the discipline the State requested this Court to impose.¹ We therefore grant Hemmann's motion to vacate our opinion of July 5, 2010 and hereby reject the State Bar's Notice of Discipline.

Notice of Discipline rejected. All the Justices concur.

¹The Notice of Discipline states that the Investigative Panel of the State Disciplinary Board directed the Office of the General Counsel, State Bar of Georgia "to issue a Notice of Discipline for a Public Reprimand" and thereafter states that the Investigative Panel "has determined that the appropriate disciplinary sanction to be imposed upon [Hemmann] is a Public Reprimand," but the Notice thereafter sets forth the "reasons [the Investigative Panel] recommends that [Hemmann] be disbarred" and concludes with a prayer to this Court that we enter an order disbaring Hemmann.
