STATE BAR OF GEORGIA'S RESPONSE TO RESPONDENT'S

MOTION TO VACATE ORDER

AND REJECTION OF NOTICE OF DISCIPLINE

The State Bar of Georgia files this Response to Respondent's Motion and states the following:

1. The State Bar filed the Notice of Discipline in this case on March 16, 2010.
2. The Notice of Discipline properly states the Investigative Panel's recommendation that Respondent receive a Public Reprimand for her conduct.
3. The State Bar's references to disbarment as the level of discipline are due to a drafting error.

4. Respondent failed to reject the Notice of Discipline.
5. Pursuant to Bar Rule 4-208.1 (b), if a respondent does not properly reject a Notice of Discipline, she shall be in default, she shall have no right to any evidentiary hearing, and she shall be subject to such discipline and further proceedings as may be determined by the Supreme Court.
6. The Court is not bound by the level of discipline stated in Notices of Discipline.
